Head of Finance (No1 Role)

Description

Head of Finance (No1 Role)

£70,000 – £75,000 + bonus + benefits

Currently the A-One Group consists of two longstanding trading businesses, A-One Tools & Fixings and Premier Pipeline Supplies. Together they supply products locally and nationally from retail / distribution premises in West Yorkshire.

A-One Tools is a growing company, specialising in a wide range of industrial tools, equipment and supplies. Premier Pipeline Supplies is also growing and distributes industrial pipework, valves, fittings, controls and equipment.

We are looking for a candidate who is ready to embark on a journey of growth, alongside an experienced management team and ambitious owners.

Responsibilities

The Head of Finance role is a key appointment for A-One Group. Having made two acquisitions in eighteen months, the owners are keen to build out the model and are already pursuing additional opportunities.

With the assistance of a small, capable team, the Head of Finance will ensure that the full accounting and reporting cycle is completed for all Group companies in a timely and accurate manner.

The controls environment must be scalable to ensure the smooth integration of new businesses and the management accounts and associated MI must be as insightful as they are accurate.

Qualifications

Candidates need to be ambitious. A-One Group require an individual capable of helping them to achieve sustained and profitable growth. Success will come from having a genuine interest in helping to drive business growth and profitability whilst also ensuring that people are valued and allowed to work collaboratively towards a shared goal.

The successful candidate will have a naturally curious attitude and a commercial mindset which allows them to add real value to the operational and strategic conversations within the business.

Candidates must be qualified accountants (ACA, ACCA, CIMA) and will have experience in a commercially focused FC / FM role with a tangible appreciation of the Owner Managed environment. Interpersonally, you must be down to earth,
